DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the apertures on each of the end walls and a second container in claim 1 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: proper antecedent basis should be provided in the specification for the teaching that the apertures on each of the end walls are adapted to provide fluid connectivity between two containers, as now recited in claim 1. No new matter should be entered into the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is not clear how the apertures on each of the end walls are adapted to provide fluid connectivity between two containers.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 3 is drafted in such a way that it appears to be entirely functional. The claim is vague and indefinite because, the additional structure sought to be added to claims 1 and 2 or encompassed in this dependent claim cannot be determined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brown in view of Reed, Sr. et al., hereinafter Reed.

Brown discloses in Figs 1-4, a barrier structure comprising a container for liquids 10 made out of semi-rigid plastic material having a base, sidewalls 18 and 20, end walls 22 and 24 having apertures [col 3 lines 27-39] and filling means [holes 12 and 14].

Brown does not disclose a toy barrier.

Reed teaches that it is conventional to have a toy barrier. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, in view of Reed to make the barrier disclosed in the Brown reference into a toy in order to have a more realistic toy barrier.

9. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yodock in view of Reed.

Yodock discloses in Figs 1-5, a barrier structure comprising a container for liquids 10 made out of semi-rigid plastic material having a base, sidewalls [either 14 or 16], end walls [either 14 or 16] having apertures [either openings 46 or grooves 50 and openings 56] and filling means [opening 82].

Yodock does not disclose a toy barrier.

Reed teaches that it is conventional to have a toy barrier. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, in view of Reed to make the barrier disclosed in the Yodock reference into a toy in order to have a more realistic toy barrier.
